Massachusetts General Law (Ch.78 Sec. 7) states that circulation records of library materials are private. Please complete this form if you wish to grant permission to another person to pick up your holds. A note will be placed on your account to allow proxy access for all future transactions. Please note that any person in possession of your library card is automatically approved to pick up holds on your behalf.

I authorize the following person(s) to pick up library materials on my behalf:
